

HB 1227 -- EMPLOYEE FRINGE BENEFITS

SPONSOR: Eggleston

This bill requires employers to furnish, at least once a month, each of their employees with a statement showing the total monetary value for each fringe benefit, as defined in the bill, for the period. An employer that fails to provide the statement must be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and fined between $50 and $500 for each offense.