8 "568.060. 1. As used in this section, the following terms shall mean:

9 (1) "Abuse", the infliction of physical, sexual, or mental injury against a child by any person
10 eighteen years of age or older. For purposes of this section, abuse shall not include injury inflicted 11 on a child by accidental means by a person with care, custody, or control of the child, or discipline
12 of a child by a person with care, custody, or control of the child, including spanking, in a reasonable
13 manner;

14 (2) "Abusive head trauma", a serious physical injury to the head or brain caused by any 15 means, including but not limited to shaking, jerking, pushing, pulling, slamming, hitting, or kicking;

16 (3) "Mental injury", an injury to the intellectual or psychological capacity or the emotional 17 condition of a child as evidenced by an observable and substantial impairment of the ability of the 18 child to function within his or her normal range of performance or behavior;

19 (4) "Neglect", the failure to provide, by those responsible for the care, custody, and control
20 of a child under the age of eighteen years, the care reasonable and necessary to maintain the 21 physical and mental health of the child, when such failure presents a substantial probability that 22 death or physical injury or sexual injury would result;

23 (5) "Physical injury", physical pain, illness, or any impairment of physical condition,
24 including but not limited to bruising, lacerations, hematomas, welts, or permanent or temporary 25 disfigurement and impairment of any bodily function or organ;

26 (6) "Serious emotional injury", an injury that creates a substantial risk of temporary or 27 permanent medical or psychological damage, manifested by impairment of a behavioral, cognitive,
28 or physical condition. Serious emotional injury shall be established by testimony of qualified 29 experts upon the reasonable expectation of probable harm to a reasonable degree of medical or 30 psychological certainty;

1 (7) "Serious physical injury", a physical injury that creates a substantial risk of death or that
2 causes serious disfigurement or protracted loss or impairment of the function of any part of the 3 body.

4 2. A person commits the offense of abuse or neglect of a child if such person knowingly
5 causes a child who is less than eighteen years of age:

6 (1) To suffer physical or mental injury as a result of abuse or neglect; or

7 (2) To be placed in a situation in which the child may suffer physical or mental injury as the 8 result of abuse or neglect.

9 3. A person commits the offense of abuse or neglect of a child if such person recklessly
10 causes a child who is less than eighteen years of age to suffer from abusive head trauma.

11 4. A person does not commit the offense of abuse or neglect of a child by virtue of the sole
12 fact that the person delivers or allows the delivery of a child to a provider of emergency services.

13 5. The offense of abuse or neglect of a child is:

14 (1) A class D felony, without eligibility for probation, parole, or conditional release until the 15 defendant has served no less than one year of such sentence, unless the person has previously been 16 found guilty of a violation of this section or of a violation of the law of any other jurisdiction that 17 prohibits the same or similar conduct or the injury inflicted on the child is a serious emotional injury
18 or a serious physical injury, in which case abuse or neglect of a child is a class B felony, without 19 eligibility for probation or parole until the defendant has served not less than five years of such 20 sentence; or

21 (2) A class A felony if the child dies as a result of injuries sustained from conduct
22 chargeable under the provisions of this section.

23 6. Notwithstanding subsection 5 of this section to the contrary, the offense of abuse or 24 neglect of a child is a class A felony, without eligibility for probation, parole, or conditional release 25 until the defendant has served not less than fifteen years of such sentence, if:

26 (1) The injury is a serious emotional injury or a serious physical injury;

27 (2) The child is less than fourteen years of age; and

1 (3) The injury is the result of sexual abuse or sexual abuse in the first degree as defined 2 under section 566.100 or sexual exploitation of a minor as defined under section 573.023.

3 7. The circuit or prosecuting attorney may refer a person who is suspected of abuse or 4 neglect of a child to an appropriate public or private agency for treatment or counseling so long as 5 the agency has consented to taking such referrals. Nothing in this subsection shall limit the 6 discretion of the circuit or prosecuting attorney to prosecute a person who has been referred for 7 treatment or counseling pursuant to this subsection.

8 8. Nothing in this section shall be construed to alter the requirement that every element of 9 any crime referred to herein must be proven beyond a reasonable doubt.

10 9. Discipline, including spanking administered in a reasonable manner, shall not be 11 construed to be abuse under this section.

12 10. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 556.036, prosecutions for child abuse may be 13 commenced at any time.

14 568.060. 1. As used in this section, the following terms shall mean:

15 (1) "Abuse", the infliction of physical, sexual, or mental injury against a child by any person
16 eighteen years of age or older. For purposes of this section, abuse shall not include injury inflicted
17 on a child by accidental means by a person with care, custody, or control of the child, or discipline
18 of a child by a person with care, custody, or control of the child, including spanking, in a reasonable
19 manner;

20 (2) "Abusive head trauma", a serious physical injury to the head or brain caused by any 21 means, including but not limited to shaking, jerking, pushing, pulling, slamming, hitting, or kicking;

22 (3) "Mental injury", an injury to the intellectual or psychological capacity or the emotional
23 condition of a child as evidenced by an observable and substantial impairment of the ability of the 24 child to function within his or her normal range of performance or behavior;

25 (4) "Neglect", the failure to provide, by those responsible for the care, custody, and control
26 of a child under the age of eighteen years, the care reasonable and necessary to maintain the 27 physical and mental health of the child, when such failure presents a substantial probability that

1 death or physical injury or sexual injury would result;

2 (5) "Physical injury", physical pain, illness, or any impairment of physical condition,
3 including but not limited to bruising, lacerations, hematomas, welts, or permanent or temporary
4 disfigurement and impairment of any bodily function or organ;

5 (6) "Serious emotional injury", an injury that creates a substantial risk of temporary or 6 permanent medical or psychological damage, manifested by impairment of a behavioral, cognitive,
7 or physical condition. Serious emotional injury shall be established by testimony of qualified
8 experts upon the reasonable expectation of probable harm to a reasonable degree of medical or 9 psychological certainty;

10 (7) "Serious physical injury", a physical injury that creates a substantial risk of death or that 11 causes serious disfigurement or protracted loss or impairment of the function of any part of the 12 body.

13 2. A person commits the offense of abuse or neglect of a child if such person knowingly
14 causes a child who is less than eighteen years of age:

15 (1) To suffer physical or mental injury as a result of abuse or neglect; or

16 (2) To be placed in a situation in which the child may suffer physical or mental injury as the 17 result of abuse or neglect.

18 3. A person commits the offense of abuse or neglect of a child if such person recklessly
19 causes a child who is less than eighteen years of age to suffer from abusive head trauma.

20 4. A person does not commit the offense of abuse or neglect of a child by virtue of the sole
21 fact that the person delivers or allows the delivery of a child to a provider of emergency services.

22 5. The offense of abuse or neglect of a child is:

23 (1) A class C felony, without eligibility for probation or parole until the defendant has 24 served no less than one year of such sentence, unless the person has previously been found guilty of 25 a violation of this section or of a violation of the law of any other jurisdiction that prohibits the 26 same or similar conduct or the injury inflicted on the child is a serious emotional injury or a serious 27 physical injury, in which case abuse or neglect of a child is a class B felony, without eligibility for

1 probation or parole until the defendant has served not less than five years of such sentence; or

2 (2) A class A felony if the child dies as a result of injuries sustained from conduct
3 chargeable under the provisions of this section.

4 6. Notwithstanding subsection 5 of this section to the contrary, the offense of abuse or 5 neglect of a child is a class A felony, without eligibility for probation or parole until the defendant 6 has served not less than fifteen years of such sentence, if:

7 (1) The injury is a serious emotional injury or a serious physical injury;

8 (2) The child is less than fourteen years of age; and

9 (3) The injury is the result of sexual abuse as defined under section 566.100 or sexual 10 exploitation of a minor as defined under section 573.023.

11 7. The circuit or prosecuting attorney may refer a person who is suspected of abuse or 12 neglect of a child to an appropriate public or private agency for treatment or counseling so long as 13 the agency has consented to taking such referrals. Nothing in this subsection shall limit the 14 discretion of the circuit or prosecuting attorney to prosecute a person who has been referred for 15 treatment or counseling pursuant to this subsection.

16 8. Nothing in this section shall be construed to alter the requirement that every element of 17 any crime referred to herein must be proven beyond a reasonable doubt.

18 9. Discipline, including spanking administered in a reasonable manner, shall not be 19 construed to be abuse under this section.

20 10. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 556.036, prosecutions for child abuse may be 21 commenced at any time."; and

22
23 Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references 24 accordingly.
