1 is subject to all of the provisions of chapter 536 and, if applicable, section 536.028. This section
2 and chapter 536 are nonseverable and if any of the powers vested with the general assembly
3 pursuant to chapter 536 to review, to delay the effective date, or to disapprove and annul a rule are 4 subsequently held unconstitutional, then the grant of rulemaking authority and any rule proposed or 5 adopted after August 28, 2009, shall be invalid and void.

6 3. All fees collected by a tax-exempt organization may be retained and used by the 7 organization.

8 4. All fees charged shall not exceed those in this section. The fees imposed by this section 9 shall be collected by all permanent offices and all full-time or temporary offices maintained by the 10 department of revenue.

11 5. Any person acting as agent of the department of revenue for the sale and issuance of 12 registrations, licenses, and other documents related to motor vehicles shall have an insurable interest 13 in all license plates, licenses, tabs, forms and other documents held on behalf of the department.

14 6. The fees authorized by this section shall not be collected by motor vehicle dealers acting 15 as agents of the department of revenue under section 32.095 or those motor vehicle dealers 16 authorized to collect and remit sales tax under subsection 8 of section 144.070.

17 7. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, the state auditor may audit all 18 records maintained and established by the fee office in the same manner as the auditor may audit
19 any agency of the state, and the department shall ensure that this audit requirement is a necessary
20 condition for the award of all fee office contracts. No confidential records shall be divulged in such 21 a way to reveal personally identifiable information."; and
