8 "452.375. 1. As used in this chapter, unless the context clearly indicates otherwise:

9 (1) "Custody" means joint legal custody, sole legal custody, joint physical custody or sole 10 physical custody or any combination thereof;

11 (2) "Joint legal custody" means that the parents share the decision-making rights, 12 responsibilities, and authority relating to the health, education and welfare of the child, and, unless 13 allocated, apportioned, or decreed, the parents shall confer with one another in the exercise of 14 decision-making rights, responsibilities, and authority;

15 (3) "Joint physical custody" means an order awarding each of the parents significant, but not 16 necessarily equal, periods of time during which a child resides with or is under the care and 17 supervision of each of the parents. Joint physical custody shall be shared by the parents in such a 18 way as to assure the child of frequent, continuing and meaningful contact with both parents;

19 (4) "Third-party custody" means a third party designated as a legal and physical custodian 20 pursuant to subdivision (5) of subsection 5 of this section.

21 2. The court shall determine custody in accordance with the best interests of the child. The 22 court shall consider all relevant factors including:

23 (1) The wishes of the child's parents as to custody and the proposed parenting plan 24 submitted by both parties;

25 (2) The needs of the child for a frequent, continuing and meaningful relationship with both 26 parents and the ability and willingness of parents to actively perform their functions as mother and 27 father for the needs of the child;

28 (3) The interaction and interrelationship of the child with parents, siblings, and any other 29 person who may significantly affect the child's best interests;

30 (4) Which parent is more likely to allow the child frequent, continuing and meaningful 31 contact with the other parent;

Select Action Taken _____ Date _____

1 (5) The child's adjustment to the child's home, school, and community;

2 (6) The mental and physical health of all individuals involved, including any history of 3 abuse of any individuals involved. If the court finds that a pattern of domestic violence as defined 4 in section 455.010 has occurred, and, if the court also finds that awarding custody to the abusive 5 parent is in the best interest of the child, then the court shall enter written findings of fact and 6 conclusions of law. Custody and visitation rights shall be ordered in a manner that best protects the 7 child and any other child or children for whom the parent has custodial or visitation rights, and the 8 parent or other family or household member who is the victim of domestic violence from any 9 further harm;

10 (7) The intention of either parent to relocate the principal residence of the child; and

11 (8) The wishes of a child as to the child's custodian. The fact that a parent sends his or her 12 child or children to a home school, as defined in section 167.031, shall not be the sole factor that a 13 court considers in determining custody of such child or children.

14 3. (1) In any court proceedings relating to custody of a child, the court shall not award 15 custody or unsupervised visitation of a child to a parent if such parent or any person residing with 16 such parent has been found guilty of, or pled guilty to, any of the following offenses when a child 17 was the victim:

18 (a) A felony violation of section 566.030, 566.032, 566.040, 566.060, 566.062, 566.064, 19 566.067, 566.068, 566.070, 566.083, 566.090, 566.100, 566.111, 566.151, 566.203, 566.206, 20 566.209, 566.212, or 566.215;

21 (b) A violation of section 568.020;

22 (c) A violation of subdivision (2) of subsection 1 of section 568.060;

23 (d) A violation of section 568.065;

24 (e) A violation of section 568.080;

25 (f) A violation of section 568.090; or 26 (g) A violation of section 568.175.

27 (2) For all other violations of offenses in chapters 566 and 568 not specifically listed in 28 subdivision (1) of this subsection or for a violation of an offense committed in another state when a 29 child is the victim that would be a violation of chapter 566 or 568 if committed in Missouri, the 30 court may exercise its discretion in awarding custody or visitation of a child to a parent if such 31 parent or any person residing with such parent has been found guilty of, or pled guilty to, any such 32 offense.

33 4. The general assembly finds and declares that it is the public policy of this state that 34 frequent, continuing and meaningful contact with both parents after the parents have separated or 35 dissolved their marriage is in the best interest of the child, except for cases where the court
36 specifically finds that such contact is not in the best interest of the child, and that it is the public 37 policy of this state to encourage parents to participate in decisions affecting the health, education 38 and welfare of their children, and to resolve disputes involving their children amicably through 39 alternative dispute resolution. In order to effectuate these policies, the court shall determine the 40 custody arrangement which will best assure both parents participate in such decisions and have 41 frequent, continuing and meaningful contact with their children so long as it is in the best interests

1 of the child.

2 5. Prior to awarding the appropriate custody arrangement in the best interest of the child, 3 the court shall consider each of the following as follows:

4 (1) Joint physical and joint legal custody to both parents, which shall not be denied solely 5 for the reason that one parent opposes a joint physical and joint legal custody award. The residence 6 of one of the parents shall be designated as the address of the child for mailing and educational 7 purposes;

8 (2) Joint physical custody with one party granted sole legal custody. The residence of one of 9 the parents shall be designated as the address of the child for mailing and educational purposes;

10 (3) Joint legal custody with one party granted sole physical custody;

11 (4) Sole custody to either parent; or

12 (5) Third-party custody or visitation:

13 (a) When the court finds that each parent is unfit, unsuitable, or unable to be a custodian, or 14 the welfare of the child requires, and it is in the best interests of the child, then custody, temporary 15 custody or visitation may be awarded to any other person or persons deemed by the court to be 16 suitable and able to provide an adequate and stable environment for the child. Before the court 17 awards custody, temporary custody or visitation to a third person under this subdivision, the court 18 shall make that person a party to the action;

19 (b) Under the provisions of this subsection, any person may petition the court to intervene 20 as a party in interest at any time as provided by supreme court rule.

21 6. If the parties have not agreed to a custodial arrangement, or the court determines such 22 arrangement is not in the best interest of the child, the court shall include a written finding in the 23 judgment or order based on the public policy in subsection 4 of this section and each of the factors 24 listed in subdivisions (1) to (8) of subsection 2 of this section detailing the specific relevant factors
25 that made a particular arrangement in the best interest of the child. If a proposed custodial 26 arrangement is rejected by the court, the court shall include a written finding in the judgment or 27 order detailing the specific relevant factors resulting in the rejection of such arrangement.

28 7. Upon a finding by the court that either parent has refused to exchange information with 29 the other parent, which shall include but not be limited to information concerning the health, 30 education and welfare of the child, the court shall order the parent to comply immediately and to 31 pay the prevailing party a sum equal to the prevailing party's cost associated with obtaining the 32 requested information, which shall include but not be limited to reasonable attorney's fees and court 33 costs.

34 8. As between the parents of a child, no preference may be given to either parent in the 35 awarding of custody because of that parent's age, sex, or financial status, nor because of the age or 36 sex of the child.

37 9. Any judgment providing for custody shall include a specific written parenting plan 38 setting forth the terms of such parenting plan arrangements specified in subsection [7] 8 of section
39 452.310. Such plan may be a parenting plan submitted by the parties pursuant to section 452.310
40 or, in the absence thereof, a plan determined by the court, but in all cases, the custody plan approved 41 and ordered by the court shall be in the court's discretion and shall be in the best interest of the 1 child.

2 10. After August 28, 2016, every court order establishing or modifying custody or visitation
3 shall include the following language: "In the event of noncompliance with this order, the aggrieved
4 party may file a verified motion for contempt. If custody, visitation, or third-party custody is denied 5 or interfered with by a parent or third party without good cause, the aggrieved person may file a 6 family access motion with the court stating the specific facts that constitute a violation of the 7 custody provisions of the judgment of dissolution, legal separation, or judgment of paternity. The 8 circuit clerk will provide the aggrieved party with an explanation of the procedures for filing a 9 family access motion and a simple form for use in filing the family access motion. A family access 10 motion does not require the assistance of legal counsel to prepare and file.".

11 11. Unless a parent has been denied custody rights pursuant to this section or visitation 12 rights under section 452.400, both parents shall have access to records and information pertaining to 13 a minor child, including, but not limited to, medical, dental, and school records. If the parent 14 without custody has been granted restricted or supervised visitation because the court has found that 15 the parent with custody or any child has been the victim of domestic violence, as defined in section 16 455.010, by the parent without custody, the court may order that the reports and records made 17 available pursuant to this subsection not include the address of the parent with custody or the child.
18 Unless a parent has been denied custody rights pursuant to this section or visitation rights under 19 section 452.400, any judgment of dissolution or other applicable court order shall specifically allow 20 both parents access to such records and reports.

21 [11.] 12. Except as otherwise precluded by state or federal law, if any individual, 22 professional, public or private institution or organization denies access or fails to provide or disclose 23 any and all records and information, including, but not limited to, past and present dental, medical 24 and school records pertaining to a minor child, to either parent upon the written request of such 25 parent, the court shall, upon its finding that the individual, professional, public or private institution 26 or organization denied such request without good cause, order that party to comply immediately 27 with such request and to pay to the prevailing party all costs incurred, including, but not limited to, 28 attorney's fees and court costs associated with obtaining the requested information.

29 [12.] 13. An award of joint custody does not preclude an award of child support pursuant to 30 section 452.340 and applicable supreme court rules. The court shall consider the factors contained 31 in section 452.340 and applicable supreme court rules in determining an amount reasonable or 32 necessary for the support of the child.

33 [13.] 14. If the court finds that domestic violence or abuse, as defined in section 455.010
34 has occurred, the court shall make specific findings of fact to show that the custody or visitation 35 arrangement ordered by the court best protects the child and the parent or other family or household 36 member who is the victim of domestic violence, as defined in section 455.010, and any other 37 children for whom such parent has custodial or visitation rights from any further harm."; and
