15 four cents per barrel, and after January 1, 2022, the rate shall not exceed five cents per barrel.

16 2. Annually the director of the department of agriculture shall ascertain the total expenses
17 for administering sections 414.012 to 414.152 during the preceding year, and shall forward a copy
18 of such expenses to the director of revenue. The director of revenue shall fix the inspection fee for 19 the ensuing calendar year at such rate per barrel, within the limits established by subsection 1 of this 20 section, as will approximately yield revenue equal to the expenses of administering sections 414.012
21 to 414.152 during the preceding calendar year and shall collect the fees and deposit them in the state
22 treasury to the credit of the "Petroleum Inspection Fund" which is hereby created. Beginning July 23 1, 1988, all expenses of administering sections 414.012 to 414.152 shall be paid from appropriations 24 made out of the petroleum inspection fund.

25 3. The unexpended balance in the fund at the end of each fiscal year shall not be transferred 26 to the general revenue fund of the state, and the provisions of section 33.080 relating to the transfer 27 of funds to the general revenue fund of the state by the state treasurer shall not apply to this fund.
28

29 4. The state treasurer shall invest all sums in the petroleum inspection fund not needed for 30 current operating expenses in interest-bearing banking accounts or United States government 31 obligations in the manner provided by law. All yield, increment, gain, interest or income derived 32 from the investment of these sums shall accrue to the benefit of, and be deposited within the state 33 treasury to the credit of, the petroleum inspection fund."; and

34 Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references 35 accordingly.
