AN ACT

To repeal section 173.1004, RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof one new section relating to higher education costs.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the state of Missouri, as follows:

Section A. Section 173.1004, RSMo, is repealed and one new section enacted in lieu thereof, to be known as section 173.1004, to read as follows:

173.1004. 1. The coordinating board shall promulgate rules and regulations to ensure that each approved public higher education institution shall post on its website the names of all faculty, including adjunct, part-time, and full-time faculty, who are given full or partial teaching assignments along with web links or other means of providing information about their academic credentials and, where feasible, instructor ratings by students. In addition, public institutions of higher education shall post course schedules on their websites that include the name of the instructor assigned to each course and, if applicable, each section of a course, as well as identifying those instructors who are teaching assistants, provided that the institution may modify and update the identity of instructors as courses and sections are added or cancelled.

2. Each approved public institution, as defined in section 173.1102, shall post on its public website the estimated cost for each degree program offered. Such estimated cost shall list any fees or other expenses required in addition to tuition.

3. Each approved public institution, as defined in section 173.1102, shall provide the information described in subsection 2 of this section in printed materials to prospective students at the same time that it notifies prospective students of their acceptance into the institution. If no such notification of acceptance takes place, the institution shall provide
