

HB 1407 -- LABOR ORGANIZATIONS

SPONSOR: White

This bill specifies that a person as a condition or continuation of employment cannot be required to:

- (1) Become or refrain from becoming a member of a labor organization as defined in the bill;
- (2) Pay dues, fees, assessments, or other charges to a labor organization; or
- (3) Pay to any charity or third party any equivalent amount in lieu of dues, fees, assessments, or other charges required by a labor organization.

Any agreement, understanding, or practice between a labor organization and an employer that violates the rights of employees as specified in the bill will be unlawful, null and void, and of no legal effect.

Anyone violating a provision of the bill will be guilty of a class C misdemeanor, and any person injured as a result of a violation or threatened violation of the provisions of the bill may recover all resulting damages, including costs and reasonable attorney fees, and will be entitled to injunctive relief against any violator or person threatening a violation.

Certain specified employers, employees, and agreements are exempt from the provisions of the bill.
