

HB 1921 -- CONSUMER UTILITY PROTECTION ACT

SPONSOR: Ellington

This bill sets maximum fees and penalties for reconnection of utility services if they have been disconnected for any reason. A one-time charge of $20 is allowed and a monthly fee of $5 for a period of one year. Other fees, penalties, or charges are prohibited. Utilities may recover any losses caused by the bill in a rate case with the Missouri Public Service Commission.