

HB 1961 -- GRAND JURIES

SPONSOR: Ellington

This bill specifies that when there is an offense that involves a shooting by a police officer that led to the death of a person being detained or arrested by that officer, the inquiry into whether or not there will be an indictment must be made by the appellate court that would have jurisdiction over the case.