

HB 2512 -- SENTENCING

SPONSOR: Higdon

This bill removes the requirement that certain offenders serve certain specified mandatory minimum percentages of their sentence.

The bill specifies that except for an offender who was found guilty of first degree murder or of any sex offense under Chapter 566, RSMo, any offender who meets specified qualifications is eligible for a parole hearing.