

HJR 79 -- CAMPAIGN CONTRIBUTION LIMITS

SPONSOR: Swan

Upon voter approval, this proposed constitutional amendment would set contribution limits for individuals donating to candidate committees based on the federal law and limits for individual contributions to similar candidate committees under federal law. Because federal law sets separate limits before and after a primary election, the same structure would apply to state candidate committees. The amendment has an effective date 30 days after the 2017 general election day.