

HB 438 -- LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICERS DETAINING CERTAIN PERSONS

SPONSOR: Wilson

This bill establishes criminal and civil immunity for any law enforcement officer who detains an individual who appears to be incapacitated or intoxicated if the officer has reasonable grounds to believe the person is incapacitated or intoxicated by alcohol, drugs, or other substance and the officer does not use unreasonable excessive force to detain the individual.