FISCAL ANALYSIS

ASSUMPTION

Officials from the Department of Higher Education and the Department of Public Safety - Missouri Veterans Commission assume the proposal will have no fiscal impact on their organizations.

Officials from Missouri State University assume there is a negative fiscal impact in excess of $36,000 for the university

Officials from Missouri Western State University assume the proposal has the potential to have a significant negative fiscal impact on the university. The negative impact is estimated at $4,486.46 annually per eligible veteran enrolled.

Officials from the University of Central Missouri anticipate these changes would cost the university $226,000 per year in tuition revenue absent any reimbursement from the State.

Officials from the State Technical College of Missouri assume this proposal would have no impact.

In response to a previous version, HB 1368 (LR 4626-01), officials from the University of Missouri System assume the estimated cost of this fiscal note is between $5.8 million to $7.3 million. The largest cost is estimated to be at the University of Missouri St. Louis campus because they have the largest number of combat veterans who would qualify. The second largest cost would be at the University of Missouri Columbia campus.

Oversight notes this proposal makes changes to the Missouri Returning Heroes' Education Act (Act). The Act currently requires public institutions of higher education in this state to limit the amount of tuition that is paid by combat veterans to no more than $50 per credit hour. This $50 per credit hour limit is applied only if the veteran is enrolled in a program leading towards a certificate, associate or baccalaureate degree.

Oversight notes this proposal expands the Act to limit the amount that public institutions of higher education can charge for veteran students working toward a graduate degree to no more than 30% of the cost of tuition and fees for those working toward a graduate degree including masters degrees and doctorate degrees.

ASSUMPTION (continued)

Oversight estimates the number of military veterans attending graduate school to be 1,353 based on data from the National Center Education Statistics and the U.S. Census Bureau. Oversight notes the average cost for graduate tuition and fees in Missouri is estimated at $8,895 per year. If 70% of the graduate tuition and fees were waived, the average amount of waived tuition and fees per year per student would total $6,226 ($$8,895 * .70$). Oversight has no way to narrow the number of military veterans attending graduate school listed above to only those meeting the criteria for ‘combat veterans.’ Below is the estimated cost for the graduate tuition waiver assuming different qualification rates and participation rates:

Table I

Qualifies and Participates Rate	Number of Students	Average Tuition Waived (Per Year)
5%	68	$423,368
25%	338	$2,104,388
50%	676	$4,208,776
100%	1352	$8,417,552

Oversight requested from the Department of Higher Education the amount of tuition and number of students whose tuition has been waived in the past under this $50 per credit hour existing program. The Department stated they do not routinely gather this information. The last time they asked the institutions for this information was 2011. At that time the institutions reported the one year tuition waiver listed below:

Table II

Institution	Tuition Waived	Number of Students
Crowder	$3,967	11
East Central Community College	not reported
Harris- Stowe	$8,094	2
Jefferson College	$12,215	24
Lincoln University	$11,977	6

Institution	Tuition Waived	Number of Students
Metropolitan Community College	not reported
Mineral Area Community College	$608	1
Missouri Southern State University	$7,690	10
Missouri State University	$173,816	40
Missouri Western State University	$18,311	12
Moberly Area Community College	$28,935	40
North Central Community College	$0	0
Northwest Missouri State University	$9,730	4
Ozark Technical College	$34,388	87
Southeast Missouri State University	$84,766	56
St. Charles Community College	$21,090	37
St. Louis Community College	not reported
State Fair Community College	$2,512	10
State Technical College of Missouri	$33,061	11
Three Rivers Community College	$4,702	13
Truman State University	$0	0
University of Central Missouri	$75,485	22
University of Missouri	$443,586	207
Total	$974,933	593

Based on the information above, Oversight notes the cost to the colleges and universities of the existing Missouri Returning Heroes program was approximately $974,933 in 2011 with 593 veterans participating (a participation rate estimated at approximately 6.4%). Oversight is unable to determine how many eligible veterans would participate in the graduate tuition and fee reduction.

According to U.S. Census data, there were 45,086 students in graduate, professional public schools in Missouri in 2016, and 256,181 in college, undergraduate. This equates to approximately 17.6% (45,086 / 256,181). Applying this same percentage to the number of reported students that utilized the current program (593), you could reasonably assume that 104 students would utilize the new program and result in approximately $647,500 in reduced fees and tuition (104 x $6,226 = $647,500).

Oversight assumes this proposal expands the program to veterans who served in armed combat in the military prior to September 11, 2001. Oversight also notes this proposal also extends the eligibility period for the graduate program from ten years to twenty years. Oversight assumes these could increase participation in the programs (compared to the previous version) and will show a fiscal impact of could exceed $1,000,000.

FISCAL IMPACT - Small Business

No direct fiscal impact to small businesses would be expected as a result of this proposal.

FISCAL DESCRIPTION

This bill requires any institution of higher education that receives state funds to limit the amount of tuition it charges to combat veterans enrolled in a program leading to a graduate degree to no more than 30% of the cost of tuition and fees.

A combat veteran is eligible for the tuition limitation for a 20-year period beginning on the date of the veteran's last discharge from service.

This legislation is not federally mandated, would not duplicate any other program and would not require additional capital improvements or rental space.
