

HB 2221 -- REGISTERED INTERIOR DESIGNERS

SPONSOR: Franklin

This bill removes the requirement that the experience requirements for registered interior designers be verified by at least two client references, business or employment verification, and three industry references. The bill does not include any new verification requirements.