

HB 2374 -- PROTECTIVE ORDERS

SPONSOR: Gregory

This bill adds "intimidation," which is the "injuring, killing, or threatening to injure or kill an animal if such act is done to coerce, control, punish, or as an act of revenge against a household member," to the jurisdiction a court shall have to enter an order of protection restraining or enjoining a respondent from committing or threatening to commit.