

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

FIRST EXTRAORDINARY SESSION OF THE FIRST REGULAR SESSION
100th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

SECOND DAY, TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 10, 2019

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Representative Eggleston in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Monsignor Robert A. Kurwicki, Chaplain.

Teach me to do your will, for you are my God: your spirit is good; lead me into the land of uprightness.
(Psalm 143:10)

Almighty and Eternal God, who is constantly pouring out Your Spirit upon Your people, we thank You for all those in every generation who have opened their heart to You, for men and women who have dreamed great dreams, seen great visions, and possessed great courage to stand firm for what is noble and good for all.

For those who trust in truth amid falsehood, who stand for justice amid injustice, who walk in good ways amid evil times, who quietly work for compromise even when others are in disagreement, who possess a vision of life with You at the center even when others deny Your presence, we thank You, O God. Help us who work under this dome to be instruments of Your divine will.

And the House says, "Amen!"

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.
