

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 100th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

SIXTY-FIRST DAY, TUESDAY, MAY 12, 2020

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Haahr in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Monsignor Robert A. Kurwicky, Chaplain.

*Let us love one another, for love comes from God. Everyone who loves has been born from God and knows God.
(1 John 4:7)*

O loving God, who guided our ancestors to build on these shores a nation of the people, by the people, and who gave them faith to believe that they may become one in spirit with liberty and justice for all, touch our hearts that we may live according to Your holy will and that we may be open to the leading of Your gracious Spirit during this uncertain time.

Remove from our minds today all bitterness, all fear, and all contempt for one another, that departing from all that divides us we may, by Your grace, arrive at a new unity of spirit, that being one with You, we may be one with one another this last week.

Today, may our spirit be the spirit of calmness. May our security be the security of goodness. May our strength be the strength of humility where each may live for all, and all may care for each, here in the People's House.

Let us remember all who have served and have fallen in the line of duty during this national and state Law Enforcement Memorial Week.

And the House says, "Amen!"

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the sixtieth day was approved as corrected by the following vote:

Citizens of this state are encouraged to participate in appropriate events and activities to express appreciation for honor guards and the services they provide for deceased veterans and service members."; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

On motion of Representative Morse (151), House Amendment No. 2 was adopted.

Representative Sommer offered House Amendment No. 3.

House Amendment No. 3

AMEND House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 656, Page 15, Section 208.151, Line 241, by inserting after all of said section and line the following:

"209.150. 1. Every person with a ~~[visual, aural, or other]~~ disability, ~~[including diabetes,]~~ as defined in section 213.010, shall have the same rights afforded to a person with no such disability to the full and free use of the streets, highways, sidewalks, walkways, public buildings, public facilities, and other public places.

2. Every person with a ~~[visual, aural, or other]~~ disability, ~~[including diabetes,]~~ as defined in section 213.010, is entitled to full and equal accommodations, advantages, facilities, and privileges of all common carriers, airplanes, motor vehicles, railroad trains, motor buses, taxis, streetcars, boats or any other public conveyances or modes of transportation, hotels, lodging places, places of public accommodation, amusement or resort, and other places to which the general public is invited, subject only to the conditions and limitations established by law and applicable alike to all persons.

3. Every person with a ~~[visual, aural, or other]~~ disability, ~~[including diabetes,]~~ as defined in section 213.010, shall have the right to be accompanied by a ~~[guide dog, hearing dog, or]~~ service dog or dogs, as defined in section 209.200, which is especially trained for the purpose, in any of the places listed in subsection 2 of this section without being required to pay an extra charge for the ~~[guide dog, hearing dog, or]~~ service dog or dogs, as defined in section 209.200; provided that such person shall be liable for any damage done to the premises or facilities by such dog.

4. As used in sections 209.150 to 209.190, the term "service dog" ~~means any dog specifically trained to assist a person with a physical or mental disability by performing necessary tasks or doing work which the person cannot perform. Such tasks shall include, but not be limited to, pulling a wheelchair, retrieving items, carrying supplies, and search and rescue of an individual with a disability]~~ shall have the same definition as in section 209.200.

209.200. As used in sections ~~[209.200]~~ 209.150 to 209.204, not to exceed the provisions of the Americans With Disabilities Act, the following terms shall mean:

- (1) "Disability", as defined in section 213.010 including diabetes;
- (2) "Service dog", a dog that is being or has been ~~speciall~~ individually trained to do work or perform tasks ~~[which] for the benefit [a particular person]~~ of an individual with a disability, including a physical, sensory, psychiatric, intellectual, or other mental disability. Service dog includes but is not limited to:
 - (a) "Guide dog", a dog that is being or has been specially trained to assist a particular blind or visually impaired person;
 - (b) "Hearing dog", a dog that is being or has been specially trained to assist a particular deaf or hearing-impaired person;
 - (c) "Medical alert or ~~respond~~ response dog", a dog that is being or has been trained to alert a person with a disability that a particular medical event is about to occur or to respond to a medical event that has occurred;
 - (d) "Mental health service dog" or "psychiatric service dog", a dog individually trained for its owner who is diagnosed with a psychiatric disability, medical condition, or developmental disability recognized in the most recently published Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of Mental Disorders (DSM) to perform tasks that mitigate or assist with difficulties directly related to the owner's psychiatric disability, medical condition, or developmental disability;
 - (e) "Mobility dog", a dog that is being or has been specially trained to assist a person with a disability caused by physical impairments;
 - ~~[(e)]~~ (f) "Professional therapy dog", a dog which is selected, trained, and tested to provide specific physical therapeutic functions, under the direction and control of a qualified handler who works with the dog as a team as a part of the handler's occupation or profession. Such dogs, with their handlers, perform such functions in institutional settings, community-based group settings, or when providing services to specific persons who have disabilities. Professional therapy dogs do not include dogs, certified or not, which are used by volunteers in visitation therapy;
 - ~~[(f)]~~ (g) "Search and rescue dog", a dog that is being or has been trained to search for or prevent a person with a mental disability, including but not limited to verbal and nonverbal autism, from becoming lost;
- (3) "Service dog team", a team consisting of a trained service dog, a disabled person or child, and a person who is an adult and who has been trained to handle the service dog.

209.204. 1. Any person who knowingly impersonates a person with a disability for the purpose of receiving the accommodations regarding service dogs under the Americans with Disabilities Act, 42 U.S.C. Section 12101, et seq., is guilty of a class C misdemeanor and shall also be civilly liable for the amount of any actual damages resulting from such impersonation. Any second or subsequent violation of this section is a class B misdemeanor. For purposes of this section, "impersonates a person with a disability" means a representation by word or action as a person with a disability ~~[or a representation of a dog by word or action as a service dog]~~.

2. No person shall knowingly misrepresent a dog as a service dog for the purpose of receiving the accommodations regarding service dogs under the Americans with Disabilities Act, 42 U.S.C. Section 12101, et seq. For purposes of this section, "misrepresent a dog as a service dog" means a representation by word or action that a dog has been trained as a service dog as defined in section 209.200. Misrepresentation of a service dog includes, but is not limited to:

- (1) Knowingly creating documents that falsely represent that a dog is a service dog;
- (2) Knowingly providing to another person documents falsely stating that a dog is a service dog;
- (3) Knowingly fitting a dog, if the dog is not a service dog, with a harness, collar, vest, or sign of the type commonly used by a person with a disability to indicate a dog is a service dog; or
- (4) Knowingly representing that a dog is a service dog if the dog has not completed training to perform disability-related tasks or do disability-related work for a person with a disability.

A person who violates this subsection is guilty of a class C misdemeanor and shall also be civilly liable for any actual damages resulting from such misrepresentation. Any second or subsequent violation of this subsection is a class B misdemeanor.

3. No person shall knowingly misrepresent any animal as an assistance animal for the purpose of receiving the accommodations regarding assistance animals under the Fair Housing Act, 42 U.S.C. Section 3601, et seq., or the Rehabilitation Act, 29 U.S.C. Section 701, et seq. For the purposes of this section an "assistance animal" is an animal that works, provides assistance, or performs tasks, or is being trained to work, provide assistance, or perform tasks, for the benefit of a person with a disability, or that provides emotional support that alleviates one or more identified effects of a person's disability. While dogs are the most common type of assistance animal, other animals can also be assistance animals. Misrepresentation of an assistance animal includes, but is not limited to:

- (1) Knowingly creating documents that falsely represent that an animal is an assistance animal;
- (2) Knowingly providing to another person documents falsely stating that an animal is an assistance animal;
- (3) Knowingly fitting an animal, if the animal is not an assistance animal, with a harness, collar, vest, or sign of the type commonly used by a person with a disability to indicate an animal is an assistance animal; or
- (4) Knowingly and intentionally misrepresenting a material fact to a health care provider for the purpose of obtaining documentation from the health care provider necessary to designate an animal as an assistance animal. All documentation for an assistance animal must be from a qualified professional as permitted under the Fair Housing Act, 42 U.S.C. Section 3601, et seq., or the Rehabilitation Act, 29 U.S.C. Section 701, et seq.

A person who violates this subsection is guilty of a class C misdemeanor and shall also be civilly liable for any actual damages resulting from such misrepresentation. Any second or subsequent violation of this subsection is a class B misdemeanor.

4. The governor's council on disability shall prepare and make available online a placard suitable for posting in a front window or door, stating that service dogs are welcome and that misrepresentation of a service dog is a violation of Missouri law, as well as a brochure detailing permissible questions as allowed by the Americans with Disabilities Act, a business owner may ask in order to determine whether a dog is a service dog, and guidelines defining unacceptable behavior.

5. The governor's council on disability shall prepare and make available online a brochure for landlords and tenants regarding laws relating to service dogs, assistance animals, and housing under federal and Missouri law."; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

On motion of Representative Sommer, House Amendment No. 3 was adopted.

Representative Schroer offered House Amendment No. 4.

House Amendment No. 4

AMEND House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 656, Page 2, Section 27.115, Line 7, by inserting after said section and line the following:

"42.017. 1. The commission shall actively seek out, within every county of this state and within any city not within a county, business organizations that have available job opportunities and are interested in hiring veterans to fill those opportunities. The commission shall collect contact information from such business organizations and shall prominently display such contact information in a table on the commission's website. The list of business organizations included in the table shall be arranged by county and city not within a county.

2. The commission may promulgate all necessary rules and regulations for the administration of this section. Any rule or portion of a rule, as that term is defined in section 536.010, that is created under the authority delegated in this section shall become effective only if it complies with and is subject to all of the provisions of chapter 536 and, if applicable, section 536.028. This section and chapter 536 are nonseverable, and if any of the powers vested with the general assembly pursuant to chapter 536 to review, to delay the effective date, or to disapprove and annul a rule are subsequently held unconstitutional, then the grant of rulemaking authority and any rule proposed or adopted after August 28, 2020, shall be invalid and void."; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

On motion of Representative Schroer, House Amendment No. 4 was adopted.

Representative Haffner assumed the Chair.

On motion of Representative Griffith, HCS SB 656, as amended, was adopted.

On motion of Representative Griffith, HCS SB 656, as amended, was read the third time and passed by the following vote:
