

HB 2620 -- MUNICIPAL UTILITY RATES

SPONSOR: Hansen

This bill specifies that any city or subdivision of a city that sells retail electricity and derives annual revenues from the sales that exceed its annual wholesale electricity costs by 5% must have its retail electric rates reviewed by the Public Service Commission. The commission has the authority to adjust rates as it deems necessary to protect municipal electric ratepayers from unreasonable and excessive rates.