

HB 817 -- DRIVING RECORD POINTS ASSESSMENT

SPONSOR: Davis

This bill provides that if a person commits a certain moving violation or speeding violation, the person can opt to pay one and one half times the amount of the initial fine imposed for the traffic offense in order to avoid the assessment of points on the person's driving record by the Department of Revenue.