

HJR 33 -- TAXATION OF REAL PROPERTY

SPONSOR: Rowland

Upon voter approval, this proposed Constitutional amendment provides that any individual at least 65 years old will not be subject to or liable for any increases in the rates of any real property taxes levied on any real property that is owned by the individual and used as their primary residence.

This bill is the same as HJR 116 (2020).