There are people in prison still serving time in a system that states its mission is to rehabilitate the people who have made mistakes in life. What are the measurements of that rehabilitation. There many men and women who just need another opportunity to get out in the world and make things happen for themselves. Stories of people like Edward Wilkes who is located in the Southeast Correctional Center is just one story of many who deserve a second chance and their good behavior and time served should attest to that.

I support this bill because people should have an opportunity to worthiness off a second chance at life. If they are being examples and showing good behavior like my uncle Edward Wilkes I believe they deserve credit towards their sentence and have a chance to live life again.

There are a few inmates in prison that should not be there. Those like that and have a perfect record while being there should be given a chance to return to the real world and get their lives back. Please pass this law.

As the largest and oldest anti-poverty non-profit in our state, Empower Missouri is committed to improving the quality of life for all Missouri residents through advocacy. Since our inception, Empower Missouri has focused on the criminal justice system and its impacts. Our Community Justice Coalition consists of community advocates and organizations from across the state who work with those who have been impacted by the criminal justice system. Many coalition members are formerly incarcerated or have currently incarcerated loved ones, and all are connected by a vision for a future without mass incarceration. We are providing testimony today in support of HB 1133, sponsored by Representative Chad Perkins, which would award time served credit for any days spent incarcerated in jail pre-trial. Jail credit, also known as "credit for time served" refers to time spent in jail while awaiting trial. This time can be used to lower the amount of time someone must serve in prison or jail once they have received a jail or prison sentence. For example, say a person is arrested for a misdemeanor and spends two days in jail before they are released. At trial, they are sentenced to ten days in jail and a fine. Since they have already spent two days in jail while they were awaiting trial, those two days can count towards the ten days they are required to serve, even though they had not been sentenced at that time. Currently, unless a judge awards time credit for time served before the conviction, an individual incarcerated in jail is not receiving credit that can count towards a future sentence. The current process penalizes those who cannot afford bail and must remain incarcerated in jail awaiting trial. Additionally, Missouri counties can charge the state reimbursement for a person's incarceration, but that same person is not entitled to jail credit unless a judge says so. By enacting HB 1133, Missouri would ensure that all individuals held in jail pre-trial receive time served credit for that period of incarceration. Empower Missouri urges this committee to take action to pass HB 1133 into law. Thank you for your time and consideration of this matter.

I am in support of this bill due to the over population of the prisons. 1. Staff shortages and the need to recruit teenagers that have not had any type of life experience. 2. So many that are incarcerated right now were bullied into an admission of guilt vs. the death penalty. 3. Those that were convicted and have been in the system for 20 years (for instance) that were never actually guilty. 4. There are people that were given life sentences that were bullied as a kid when they entered the system. You can easily weed out the good from the bad by correctional records.

I am in support of the Good Time credit bill because I have an incarcerated loved one whom is considered a model inmate and has done so much to give back to society. I feel that if an inmate is really trying to make a difference in changing their lifestyle then they should be rewarded as well by having time deducted from their sentence..
